

PSC staff take part in the National cleaning day

By E Gambe

PSC Managers lead the cleaning team.

As his Excellency the President of the Republic of Zimbabwe was leading the National cleanup campaign at Lake Chivero on the 1st of March 2019, the Public Service Commission Head Office staff was cleaning the streets surrounding the Social Security Center building while staff in the Pensions and SSB Agencies were cleaning the grounds of Mukwati building.

Clad in blue dust coats, the team of 32 was so serious with their work and in a short space of time had changed the face of the Social Security Center building. At first sight a passerby would mistake the members for new recruits in the City of Harare's Department of Waste Management but at a closer look one would realize that these were government officers complimenting City Council effort.

Team leader Mr Chiweshenga who is a Manager in the Internal Human Resources Agency highlighted that the PSC is moving forward the national vision of having clean cities, clean living and working environments all the time as pronounced by President Emerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa. He also stressed that an itinerary to be followed by PSC in terms of cleaning the work place environment has already been crafted and will be reviewed at the end of the year. The Itinerary will be followed religiously to show how serious the PSC is in terms of the matter.
