RE: MEASURES FOR COVID-19 CONTAINMENT WITHIN THE PUBLIC SERVICE:

In view of the announcement by the Acting President, Hon. General (Rtd) Dr. C.G.D.N. Chiwenga on 28 January 2022, regarding measures for Covid 19 containment in the country, Heads of Ministries are directed to adhere to the under listed measures with immediate effect:

- All vaccinated members to return to work with immediate effect.
- Face to face interviews now permitted in strict adherence to Covid-19 health measures
- Office hours shall remain unchanged.
- In line with Section 3(a)(i) and (ii) of Statutory Instrument 234 of 2021, members not vaccinated should be barred from the workplace and shall not be paid whilst they are barred.
- Any member that is not fully vaccinated without a reasonable excuse shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings.
- Members with medical conditions that require exemption from vaccination should provide a medical certificate from a medical practitioner who certifies that the member's condition can be worsened by the vaccine.
- All other health protocols such as wearing of face masks, social distancing and sanitization should be adhered to.

The PSC will continue to communicate any reviews as the situation is managed.

All Ministries are urged to cooperate as we remain alert in combating this pandemic, which will certainly overcome through adherence to conduct and protocols prescribed by Zimbabwe health authorities, as guided by the World Health Organization.
